

LOCAL SLED HOCKEY TEAM TO HOST LEAGUE IN EVERETT, MA

Everett, MA – The Spaulding Boston Shamrocks Sled Hockey Team will be hosting North East Sled Hockey League games on Saturday, December 15th at the Allied Veterans' Memorial Skating Rink located at 65 Elm Street, Everett, MA. Games run from 3-10:30pm and admittance is free.

“We are very excited to host sled hockey athletes from all over New England to our home rink,” said Keja MacEwan, Network Coordinator, Spaulding Adaptive Sports Networks and a Shamrocks coach. “Our athletes are anxious to compete and look forward to seeing the community coming out and supporting amazing hockey players.”

The schedule for the day is as follows:

3pm	Central Vermont Pioneers v. Spaulding Boston Shamrocks
4:30pm	Springfield Thunderbirds v. New England Warriors
6pm	Northeast Passage Wildcats v. Spaulding Boston Shamrocks
7:30pm	New England Warriors v. Central VT Pioneers
9pm	Springfield Thunderbirds v. Northeast Passage Wildcats

A bake sale and raffle will be held during the games. All proceeds will assist the Shamrocks and their youth team, the Spaulding Sledgehogs, attend the 2019 Toyota-USA Hockey's Disabled Hockey Festival in Tampa, Florida in April 2019.

The Shamrocks and Sledgehogs are part of Dr. Bernard R. and Edna M. Sears Adaptive Hockey Program at the Spaulding Adaptive Sports Centers that are dedicated to the growth of adaptive hockey in the Boston Metro area of Eastern Massachusetts for individuals of all ages and abilities.

The North East Sled Hockey League, founded in 2005, is the first-ever organized, multi-state, adult sled hockey league in the United States. The league works to promote awareness of sled hockey and support people with disabilities.
